

|                                                         |                 |          |
|---------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|----------|
| Japanese Expression IV (Introductory JapaneseIV) | Syllabus Number | JLN-104  |
|                                                         | Elective        | 1 credit |
|                                                         | YASUDA, Reiko   |          |

1. Course Description

This is a course of Japanese language and culture for TAEP international students who have studied Japanese. As a continuation of Japanese Expression III, we will brush up Japanese conversation needed on campus and in daily-life. The class also consider about key ideas to get better understanding of Japanese culture and people.