

Business Organization Management I

Syllabus Number

MAN-211

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

1. Course Description

This course focuses on the organizational behavior, and students will be introduced to theory and practice with the various real cases.

In the spring semester, the area of the organizational theory such as “What is Organization Management?”, “Organization Management Theory”, “System of Organization Management”, “Basic Form of Organization Management”, and “Movement of Organization Management” will be explored.