

Practice in German Language II

Syllabus Number

GER-114

Compulsory 1
credit

Frank, Nickel

1. Course Description

1. Contents

The purpose of this course is to help the students to get acquainted with the principles of German grammar by referring to several different aspects of life situations to train speaking, listening, reading and writing abilities.

2. Goals

To be able to talk in different situations and solve different problems, explaining your situation/needs/goals etc.

3. Evaluation

Your final grade will be based on the following criteria:

1. Final exam (30%)
2. Oral exam (40%)
3. Attendance and Participation (30%)

4. Textbooks

Schritte international Neu 2 (ISBN-13: 978-3196010824)

Schritte international Neu 3 (ISBN-13: 978-3193010827)

5. Class Preparation

You will need to study vocabulary on a daily basis and talk as much as possible with your classmates outside of classes in German in order to acquire the German language by using it.

6. Important Points

The following classes are connected in the winter term: German Conversation II and IV as well as Practice in German II. This class can only be taken for students who take German as a major. For all other students: please refer to "International Conversation" courses.

7. Contents:

1. Arrival: Communicate everyday events
2. My home: Make a request
3. Meal: Naming household container equipment
4. Work conversation: Give consultation
5. Sports: Show interest
6. Vocational training: Give opinions in emphasis
7. Gifts: Express wishes and recommendations
8. Weekend: Conflict
9. Talk about my things: conduct an auction
10. Communicate: Understand the individuality
11. Going out: guide you how to travel
12. Travel: Understand reports on accommodation
13. Money: ask for payment terms
14. Life time: understand fighting conversation
15. Final Oral Exam