

European Economy II

Syllabus Number

ECP-320

Elective

2 credit

KUDO, Mei

1. Course Description

This lecture focus on European integration after 1980s. 1980s was the era when major western countries shifted their economic policy orientation from modest liberalization to wider liberalization. In the lecture we will study how this liberalization process affected institutions related to the European integration and EU's (EC's) policies. We will also analyze current issue concerning EU and member countries.