

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2
credit

EMOTO, Nobuya

1. Course Description

This course continues through spring semester (as Economics I) to autumn semester (as International Economics II). This course aims to give students the fundamental knowledge on Japanese economy along with the textbook of "池上彰のやさしい経済学1しくみがわかる"(日本経済新聞出版社) which was written by Mr. Akira Ikegami who is familiar to Japanese economy, politics and society and is famous for its outstanding ability to explain difficult problem in a clear way. Students in this course will be required to make a presentation to summarize a certain part of the textbook in groups. Then I will explain it to help students to understand the meaning.