

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2
credit

1. Course Description

This course consists of Seminar I for the spring semester and II for the autumn semester. It is designed to develop the skills of research, debate, writing and presentation. The students will be divided into four or five groups. Each group is requested to choose a tourism-related topic, do research on it and present the interim report.