

International Politics I

Syllabus Number            INR-301
Elective                        2 credit
NAKAMURA, Rouran

1. Course Description

I will explain the following three matters as the basis of international politics.

1. Meaning of basic terms such as international politics, national interests and power.
2. Actors of modern international politics.
3. Realism and liberalism in international politics.

The purpose of this class is to understand the structure of modern international politics.