

近現代文学特論ⅠA

Elective 2 credit
YASUDA, Nanako

1. Course Description

In this seminar, students will read through historical materials on Japanese clothing and Ancient to Medieval Ages, and deepen their understanding, devise research topics based on their interests, make oral presentations individually, and discuss these presentations with everyone.

In the first semester, students set their own research topics, review previous research on their chosen topic, identify a problem in the research, and aim to find solutions to it.