

Senior Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-401

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

LEE, Hejong

1. Course Description

In this class, students will select research themes among the topics regarding to Korean society and culture, language communication and present it by summarizing the awareness of own problems based on adequate reference materials and research papers.

Following the contents of the previous term, the students will learn how to perform highly complete presentation by learning how to select reference materials, how to make presentation and handout materials, and how to write articles. At the end of the semester, the students will present with contents deepened further in the previous term, logically summarize comments from participants and submit an essay. During this class, the students will have an opportunity to carefully read the presentation materials distributed in advance and positively ask questions and comment. All the students participate in this class with the conscious that they will help to write a better essay that is suitable for logic.