International Management Syllabus Number MAN-308 IV (International Management IV) SETO, Yoshiya MAN-308 Elective 2 credit

1. Course Description

This course deals with the activities of multinational enterprises ("MNE"), focusing on their practical strategies and operations. It also aims to help students understand the basics of international business. Students are sometimes requested to do presentations in classes regarding the topics in this course.

The topics include
National Differences in Economic Development, Culture, Entry strategy,
Strategy: Strategic alliances, M&A
Organization: structure, control systems, culture
Global human resource management, Finance
Case study (Presentation)