

Topics in Japanese History 3A- I

Syllabus Number

JPH-205

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

FUKAYA, Koji

1. Course Description

This class, Topics in Japanese history 3A- I, is mainly about the historical themes in Japanese medieval time, but if there is any needs, it will have many types of theme involving the topics in another age. The students who take part in this class will have many kinds of interests or specializing fields, so the lectures in this class will treat about various subjects.

Same time, it will contain not only historical themes but also the around study of history, as geography, folklore, religion, literature, art and so on. Through those lecture, students will aquire various informations and knowledges.