

Intensive Seminar on Japanese Language Education

Syllabus Number

ESS-401

Elective

2 credit

SAKAMOTO, Kiyoko

1. Course Description

This course will think deeply Japanese language teaching methodology at the elementary school level. A variety of activities will highlight the language areas included in MEXT's Course of Study: speaking/listening, writing, reading, and Items related to traditional linguistic culture and characteristics of the Japanese language. Students will acquire practical skills through mock lessons, will think about teaching Japanese language through experience.