

心理アセスメント

Syllabus Number

CLI-206

Elective

2 credit

KANDA, Takashi

1. Course Description

This course covers the basic concepts and principles of psychological assessment. Participants will be able to experience a variety of tests, explain the major methods and theories, and understand how they can be used in various situations. The final grade will be calculated according to the following mini exam (20-30%), final exam (80-70%), and percentage of contributions made in class.