1. Course Description

This course is mainly focused on teaching students how to improve their ability in English pronunciation as well as on having them get acquainted with different cultures of the world. We will use an educational DVD-Video entitled “World Adventures” (published by Kinseido), which will take us to 15 countries, and by exploring these countries the course hopes to broaden students’ perspectives on today’s world and also hopes to prepare them to study or do research abroad in the future.
