1. Course Description

This course is the sequel to TOEIC I and will prepare students to further achieve success on the TOEIC L&R exam through instruction and guided practice. Upon completion of this course, the successful student will acquire the necessary language skills to reach a TOEIC score of 500. The class continues to focus on basic grammar, vocabulary, and listening comprehension. In comparison with TOEIC I, this class will cover all 7 parts of the TOEIC, including Part 4 (Listening Comprehension: Talks) and questions with multiple passages in Part 7 (Reading Comprehension).
