

Society and Culture in Developing Countries I

Syllabus Number

ARS-301

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

OHBA, Asayo

1. Course Description

Globalisation creates economic growth not only in developed countries but developing countries. Yet, there are growing various gaps between countries as well as within a country. In this class, we look at the global agenda “Sustainable Development Goals” in relation to many aspects in Asian and African countries including Japan.