

Introduction to Psychopharmacology

Syllabus Number

NGN-201

Elective

2 credit

WAKITA, Masumi

1. Course Description

This course surveys the fundamental principles of psychopharmacology: the study of the effects of chemical substances on the brain and behavior. Students will learn the neural mechanism of treatment for psychological disorders and drug addiction and abuse.