1. Course Description

In this class, you will gradually improve your communication skills for the upcoming job hunting activities, and at the same time, you will learn how to talk with people in different positions-honorifics and manners. In addition, through discussions and debates, we will enhance our ability to convey our opinions to others. In addition, we will deepen our understanding of society and work through interviews with working adults, and prepare for job hunting while thinking about what we need.
