1. Course Description

The purpose of this class is to know the flow and actual situation of job hunting and start job hunting preparation from the basic level. As you approach job hunting from the fall of the third year, knowing the flow and actual situation and taking an early start will increase the possibility of choosing a career path that suits you more, and will also lead to confidence. In this class, you can start preparing for a job hunting job from the beginning through work, discussions, mock interviews, etc.
