

Introduction to Economic History

III (Modern Economic History III)

Syllabus Number

ECH-103

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

NOZAWA, Joji

1. Course Description

The purpose of this course is to help students a) take a global look at the wealth and economic history of countries around the world, b) consider the various factors that influence economic growth, and particularly c) understand the historical processes that have created the unequal world we are living in today.