1. Course Description

While experiencing the joy of expression with the brush, students will learn how to write Kanji characters "correctly, neatly, legibly, and beautifully" in block style. The study of the brush is all about learning the original way of writing characters by the brush and deepening one's understanding of writing characters. This class is not about writing characters well with a brush, but about acquiring the skills to write Kanji characters "correctly, neatly, legibly, and beautifully" with a hard brush, which is used daily.
