

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2 credit

TAKEDA, Motohide

1. Course Description

Through the seminar, students who would become leaders or key accounts for various businesses and who might take over business of the family are expected to do good research and study for those challenges.

The focuses are as follows.

To study on dynamics of change, growth and evolution of human and organization:

Using data of "My Personal History" of Nikkei-Newspaper, we study on various records on the above mentioned and we try to clarify order parameters to build its change in terms of person and also organization.

To make presentations and discussions as workshops on each individual study theme.