

Tourism Resources II

Syllabus Number

GGR-204

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

IIZUKA, Ryo

1. Course Description

This lecture aims to discuss tourism resource which is essential factor for tourism phenomenon from the various view, such as history, culture, society and economy. Especially, the students learn how tourism resources are produced or discovered, and how those tourism resources are consumed by tourists from the case studies. In this Tourism Resources II, they study how tourist destinations make use of tourism resources to revitalise the area.