HINO, Junko

1. Course Description

We will summarize and get a better understanding of nonnative speakers of Japanese with diversified needs and backgrounds, which were covered in the Japanese teachers' training program. Immerging a group of nonnative speakers to whom students will encounter in the future, they will write teaching plans, teaching mock classes, and reflect the teaching performance. In so doing, we will acquire basic attitudes and skills needed to provide assistance with people. Also, students will be able to have a clearer image of how to assist nonnative speakers of Japanese.
