

児童生徒の心のケアと精神科学

Elective 2 credit
FUJII, Yasushi・KAMACHI, Keiko

1. Course Description

This class is taught in team of the two teachers. One is a medical doctor and the other is the educator with much experiments as a school teacher.

Students will learn the mental development through the early childhood to adolescence.

In this class, students also will study the mechanism and treatment of the mental illnesses including of depression diseases, fastidious diseases, PTSD and adjustment disorders. Furthermore, students will be expected to be able to take care of children who refuses to go to school and who have the bullying at the school.