

警察政策Ⅰ

Syllabus Number

CRL-201

Elective

2 credit

NUSHI, Junko

1. Course Description

In the Police Policy I, we learn about the organizational structure of Japanese police and police duties in the various fields such as community safety, criminal investigation, fighting organized crimes, traffic safety, and security police. The goal of this class is to understand the current situation of our country, police related major laws, outline of police operations and basic police policies for a safe and secure society.