

情報サービス演習B

Syllabus Number LIH-208

Librarians' Program

Elective 1 credit

UEOKA, Makiko

1. Course Description

In this course, students will practice information search and reference exercises learned in "Information Services Theory". Students will deepen their understanding of reference and information seeking by going through the reference process: accepting questions, analyzing questions, developing search strategies, conducting searches, and answering questions.