

International Law: the Maintenance of International Legal Order

Syllabus Number

ILA-302

Elective

2 credit

KITA, Yasuo

1. Course Description

This lecture discusses the ways of maintaining international legal order. The topics are as follows: (01) State Responsibility [1]: Internationally Wrongful Act of States; (02) State Responsibility [2]: Culpa; (03) State Responsibility [3]: The Implementation of State Responsibility; (04) State Responsibility [4]: Reparation for Injury; (05) State Responsibility [5]: Responsibility and Liability for Environmental Damages; (06) International Protection of Environment; (07) Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes [1]: Diplomatic Methods; (08) Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes [2]: International Adjudication; (09) Armed Conflict; (10) Principle of Non-Use of Force and its Exceptions [1]: the Establishment of the Principle of Non-Use of Force and the UN Collective Security; (11) Principle of Non-Use of Force and its Exception [2]: Right of Self-Defence and Humanitarian Intervention; (12) Law of Armed Conflict; (13) the Punishment of War Criminals; (14) Jus post bellum