

World Dimension (Asia)2

Syllabus Number

ARS-102

[IV]

Elective

2

credit

NISHIOKA, Atsushi

1. Course Description

The course offers a historical overview of Japan's relations with Asia since the Meiji era, focusing on Japan's external policies in the post-war period as well as Japan's bilateral relations with China and Korea, including "history issues". The key issues to understand the contemporary Asia such as Asia's economic interdependence and regional integration, geopolitical transformation caused by the rise of China as well as US-China relations are also covered.

Evaluation method : regular performance(attendance, review test)(60%) and term-end exam(40%).