

子どもと音楽

Syllabus Number

ESS-105

Elective

1 credit

WAKAYA, Keiko

1. Course Description

At kindergartens and daycare centers, children have music time on a daily basis. Music is essential to the development of children. In aiming to become a childcare worker, it is important to acquire the basic and foundational piano skills to accompany children's singing. In this class, you will learn the fundamentals of piano accompaniment and concurrent singing, while at the same time deepening your understanding of music for children.