

Introduction to Integrated Studies

Syllabus Number

ESS-213

Elective

2 credit

YAMADA, Shigetoshi

1. Course Description

Students learn about the background and concept Integrated Studies. You will understand the significance of "integrated learning time" and its role in the curriculum. Also, I will deepen your understanding of the following contents.

(1) About cross-cutting / comprehensive learning and explorative learning

(2) On the preparation of the guidance plan and the concept of the unit

Understand the curriculum curriculum related to "Comprehensive learning time", and acquire basic and basic knowledge that can be conceived of "comprehensive learning time".