

Women's History I

Syllabus Number GDE-201
Elective 2 credit
YAMASHITA, Sumire

1. Course Description

In this class, we will lecture on history (mainly Japanese history) from the perspective of "women. Students will learn how women have been treated and talked about socially and culturally, as well as how various events related to gender differences, not limited to women, can be viewed from a historiographical perspective.