

Cross-Cultural Understanding I

Syllabus Number

ARS-101

Elective

2 credit

UEDA, Hitoshi

1. Course Description

This is a course on cross-cultural understanding. In this class, students will explore various aspects of foreign or local cultures such as food, clothing, daily life, language, art, music, custom and religion from a comparative perspective. Students will also be expected to develop their academic skills. In order to complete the course, students will be required to make several presentations on the topic in which they are interested and submit a short essay.