1. Course Description

About 2/3 of the 15 class sessions will be devoted to reconfirming students' basic grammatical knowledge and strengthening their grammatical skills, with the aim of helping them acquire practical English expression skills based on English grammar. We will also analyze what kind of language English is from a scientific and objective point of view. In addition, the English version of Tenseijingo will be used as needed to improve English writing skills. The remaining sessions will focus on phonetics, not just knowledge of phonetics, but practical pronunciation.
