

Laws and Procedures of International Courts and Tribunals I

Syllabus Number

ILA-305

Elective

2 credit

KITA, Yasuo

1. Course Description

This course explicates the law and procedure of the International Court of Justice (ICJ). The content of the course is as follows: (01) the Development of International Adjudication System; (02) Permanent Court of International Justice; (03) the ICJ as the Principal Judicial Organ of the United Nations; (04) the Composition of the ICJ; (05) Jurisdiction; (06) Optional Clause System; (07) Parties; (08) Proceedings; (09) Preliminary Objection; (10) Interim Measures of Protection; (11) Monetary Gold Case Principle and Intervention; (12) Res Judicata, Interpretation, and Revision of Judgment; (13) Advisory Opinion.