

International Communication 2-1:	Syllabus Number	FLE-113
German	UTA, Hiroshi	Elective 2 credit

1. Course Description

This course concentrates on the revision of the course content of International Communication I as well as learning past participle and adjectives. With the help of Audio-Visual course materials, students are expected to put what they have acquired in the course in practice. Students are expected to participate in conversation in German in pairs in order to practice common expressions in German.