1. Course Description

The general purpose of the second semester is to get to know the customs, tourist places, literature, and art in general of the Latin American countries as well as the commercial, social and political situation in order to obtain a general vision of the region.

We will learn about the scientific contribution of Latin American inventors, and we will see the literature contributed by Latin American writers, in addition to the cinema that is produced, which has its own characteristic, it does not resemble either Hollywood productions or European cinema.

In addition to the diversity of Latin American music

In short, we will see aspects of Latin American cultures, which their differences create a Latin American identity.
