1. Course Description

This is a course of Japanese language and culture for TAEP international students who have studied beginning-level Japanese. While checking the basics of Japanese expressions, we will practice conversation needed on campus and in daily-life. The class also consider about “Japan” from various topics for better understanding of Japanese culture and people.

The first class will be held on Friday, April 15, and is an on-demand class via LMS. There will be assignments.
