

Risk and Insurance III (Risk and Insurance III)

Syllabus Number

CME-207

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

MAEKAWA, Tadashi

1. Course Description

The course is designed to provide Foundation of Risk Management and Insurance in the following points mainly.

- 1 To provide overview of risk and risk management
- 2 To explain how to use methods for identifying, analyzing loss exposures
- 3 To examine how to select risk control techniques
- 4 To examine how to select risk financing techniques
- 5 To explain how the emerging discipline of enterprise wide risk management(ERM)expands upon and enhances the traditional approach to risk management
- 6 To examine how pooling reduces risk, the benefits of insurance, the characteristics of insurable loss exposures, and the role of government insurance programs

The goals of this course are to enable you to understand and apply basic concepts of Risk Management and Insurance.

Hope the participation of students who are interested in this field.