

Senior Seminar I

Syllabus Number

THE-401

Compulsory 2
credit

KANAMORI, Katsuhiko

1. Course Description

Students will choose reading material and give a presentation on a theme on Special Support Education that they are particularly interested in or want to know more about. We will have class discussions based on the content of the presentations. In addition to furthering our understanding of Special Support Education, we will improve our techniques of presentation and debate.