

Senior Seminar (Japanese History 3) – II

Syllabus Number

SEM-406

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

FUKAYA, Koji

1. Course Description

This class, the Seminar of Japanese History 3B-II, is go on the same purpose and method as the first half. So the students take part in this class will have to make some groups and analyses about the documents or records written in Japanese late medieval times especially the war times (Sengoku) era. Members of groups will make the presentation about the meanings of such documents.

On this latter half, we will read the documents by War loads (Sengoku-dainyo) or their people on the last period of Sengoku era.