

International Politics Training Course)

(Teacher

Syllabus Number

ESS-211

Elective

2 credit

MIWA, Hiroki

1. Course Description

In this course, we aim to understand the basic ideas, theories, etc. about international politics. International politics, which involves various countries and institutions, is very complex and difficult to understand. However, it will be easier to understand the mechanisms and movements of international politics if you know the basic ideas and theories about them. In the class, I will first explain the recent developments in international relations. Next, I will explain various ideas and theories for understanding international politics. Finally, important topics related to international politics will be explained. I will give you a quiz at the end of each class, so that you can check your understanding and express your own opinions on the topics discussed.