

Energy Economy II

Syllabus Number

ECP-210

Elective

2 credit

GUO, Sizhi

1. Course Description

After we have study Energy of Japan I, in this term, we will focus on every energy and energy saving situation of Japan and world. Particularly to be focused on the measures and strategies to enhance Japan's energy supply security. They include (1) promotion of energy production, (2)energy conservation, (3)diversification of oil/ energy import sources and transportation route,(4)oil stockpiling strategies, (5) expansion of investment on hydrocarbon resources in foreign countries, (6)diversification of energy source and expansion of energy supply capacity particularly of the renewable energies.