保健体育科教育法 II

Syllabus Number ESS-314
Teachers' License
Program Elective
2 credit

TAKADA, Akishige

1. Course Description

Students will acquire basic leadership skills as a junior high school health and physical education teacher.Therefore, students will learn about teaching materials and teaching methods.Students will also learn about the basics of creating classes,including connections from elementary to junior high school and junior high school to senior high school.In addition, students will prepare learning instruction plans and research discussions.