Seminar II Syllabus Number SEM-302
Compulsory 2

OSHIMO, Shigeru

credit

1. Course Description

This autumn term seminar has research studies placing importance on locality and field following the spring term. The students research through group work and filed work rather than independent studies. Also, each group will write up a research note together as the results of efforts of filed work during the summer study camp and one-year research work.