

Senior Seminar I

Syllabus Number

THE-401

Compulsory 2
credit

NAMIKOSHI, Itsuki

1. Course Description

There are a lot of problem about sports administration and health education in primary school and junior high school. In this course, students make a study about health and physical education through collecting materials/data and investigating. Each student has to write an essay and present own research. Furthermore, students are expected to understand through discussing about physical and health education.