Seminar I SEM-301 Syllabus Number Compulsory 2 credit

NAGAI, Risa

1. Course Description

The activities of seminar I are;

① learning presentation skills to acquire basic techniques for working in society.
② choosing theme which student might has interest from issues such as environmental, social or about SDGs(Sustainable Development Goals) adopted by UN Summit in Sep. 2015, and giving a presentation of it.

③at the same time, writing job application forms and doing other activities as support for job hunting.