

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2
credit

TOKUYAMA, Hidekuni

1. Course Description

This class focuses as much as possible on the practical application of financial statement analysis. The purpose of this class is to understand the key analytical skills involved in reading and interpreting the financial position and financial performance of a firm using financial statements. This class is interactive and requires active participation.