

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2
credit

YOSHIMURA, Hisao

1. Course Description

The subject of this seminar is "how tourism industry is going to be". Students will choose their theme from several aspects of the tourism market and industry such as predictable change of the industry, new trend, growing field or value supplied by the industry. By doing research, studying, examining themes, students are subject to make assumption, put together ideas and finalize reports on the themes they chose. The seminar is also designed to develop skills of understanding, analyzing subjects, composing logics, making presentation.