

International Politics II

Syllabus Number

INR-302

Elective

2 credit

MIYATA, Tomoyuki

1. Course Description

This course will explain international politics since WW II focusing on the U.S. foreign policy. Also, this course will provide an overview of important theories in this field, such as realism, liberalism, and constructivism. Reference books and various sources will be introduced in class.